

Recruitment regulations for Erasmus+ Traineeships for Law, Administration, Economics, Criminology, LL.M., Criminal Justice, AIO, MME, BBA

Introductory information

Recruitment process for traineeships mobilities in 2020/2021 academic year shall be continuous (starting in December 2019)

Mobility Capital

Under the framework of Erasmus+ Programme students can apply for studies and traineeships at each of the three levels of studies (Bachelor's, Master's, PhD). Mobility capital (number of months spent abroad under Erasmus Programme) is calculated separately for each level.

Mobility capital per one level of studies is 12 months. In the case of uniform Master's programmes mobility capital cannot exceed 24 months.

Erasmus grant awarded at UWr versus mobility capital

Any UWr student can receive funding at a given level of studies for the period of 2 to 10 months. In the case of uniform Master's programmes the number of possible mobilities gets doubled. A recent graduate can receive funding for the period of 2 to 5 months.

Candidates

1. Erasmus funds are available to students of all types of programmes: part- and full-time Bachelor's, Master's and PhD.
2. Students of at least second year of first-cycle, second year of uniform Master's, first year of second-cycle programmes and PhD students can take part in recruitment process.
3. Third-year students of first-cycle programmes can take part in recruitment process on the condition that before their mobility they present a proof of being admitted to second-cycle programme at UWr.
4. Students of trans-disciplinary programmes can apply under fields of study included in their degree programme. These students are subject to the same selection criteria as students of given units.
5. Students have the right to join the recruitment process during break (leave of absence), however, they must have the status of active students.
6. Basic eligibility criteria for a recent graduate mobility: the condition for starting mobility is to submit an application at the moment of being a student of the University of Wrocław, it means till the defence of the Bachelor, Master or PHD title, but not later than 30th September of the year when your certificate of completion is awarded.
7. The traineeship must not collide with teaching obligations of a student. If the traineeship is carried out during teaching period the student must arrange individual schedule for his/her studies.
8. Basic eligibility criteria are: a command of a foreign language, the hitherto academic achievements and the planned training programme. When the number of applications exceeds the number of available seats, the priority is to be given to candidates maintaining at least 4,0 Grade Point Average (GPA).
9. Before mobility students must complete the previous year of studies.
