Terms and conditions:

- 1) Presence – you have to attend classes. Only two absences (at two different dates) are allowed. If you're above the limit, you should visit my office hours in order to correct it. If you will miss classes more than four times, you will be obliged to write a test.
- 2) Individual presentations covering cases – you will be asked to make a short presentation of one case per each class (advocate-general style: legal opinion and possible legal solution; short descriptions of merits and procedure).
- 3) Active involvement into discussions – after case presentation, we will discuss it in details: legal implications, impact on the freedoms etc. We'll try to judge the judgments. Critical thinking and your active involvement are desirable.
- 4) Final test – in the form of solving a case. It will not be necessary if you will pass conditions 1-3. If you will take the test, it will concern one of the previously discussed cases with slightly rearranged merits (like different names of the parties etc.).
