

PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW

summer semester - 2016/2017

Marta Statkiewicz, PhD Candidate

Department of International and European Law room 515 A

calendar:

- I. 24.02 -Organizational issues

- II. 10.04 (double meeting)
 - I. Subjects and objects of international community
 - States, International Organizations, Individuals, NGOs, International Corporations, Insurgents, Belligerents, National Liberation Movements
 - II. Statehood
 - sovereignty, independency
 - elements of statehood
 - recognition

- III. 24.04 (double meeting)
 - I. State's territory
 - acquisition
 - law of the sea
 - air and outer space
 - II. State's jurisdiction
 - legislative (e.g. territorial, personal, universal)
 - executive
 - judicial

- IV. 8.05 - settlement of international disputes (double meeting)
 - I. Responsibility, accountability and liability in International Law
 - for wrongful acts
 - for lawful acts
 - obligatory text: the Draft Articles on the Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts, 2001
 - II. International disputes
 - notion of international disputes
 - peaceful and judicial means of settlement of international disputes
 - International Court of Justice
 - International Criminal Court

V. 12.05 – Diplomatic and consular law

- immunities (Head of State and Government, diplomatic agents, consular agents)
- establishment of diplomatic and consular relations
- diplomatic and consular functions
- privileges of diplomatic and consular missions
- end of diplomatic and consular missions
- obligatory text: Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 1961;
Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, 1963

VI. 15.05 – Final test

VII. 22.05 – Contemporary issues in international law

basic principles of the course:

- Every student has a right to one absence during semester. In the case of any additional absence, student is required to pass the material during the agreed office hours.
- Absence on the meeting consisted of double classes, is counted as one. However, in case of passing the material during the agreed office hours, student is required to know the subject matter discussed during the whole meeting (i.e. during 3 hours)
- Final mark will be based on:
 - active participation: 3 pluses in the semester boost the semester grade half a grade up
 - test: 3 open questions