

Elements of legal system (First Part – Public International Law)

The setting of international law

1. International legal system
2. International legal theories
3. Globalization, global governance and international law
4. Ethics and international law

The making of international law

5. Article 38 Statute ICJ
6. Treaties
7. Customary
8. Consent and the persistent objector
9. A normative problem, or towards modern custom
10. On law breaking and law making
11. General principles of law
12. Unilateral declarations
13. Other possible sources of international law

The subjects of international law

14. States

Jurisdictions, powers and immunities

15. Five principles of jurisdiction
16. Extraterritorial jurisdiction
17. Concurrent jurisdiction

The individual in international law

18. Nationality

The law of responsibility

19. State responsibility: two basic principles
20. Responsibility and private acts
21. Individual responsibility

Domestic courts and their relationship with international law

22. Monism and dualism
23. Direct effect
24. Incorporating international law
25. The special case of the EU